12/31/2017 1100hrs, Deputy Morgan conducted a welfare check on an 82 year old man who lives on the River Rd in Carthage at the request of Adult Protective Services. The man was found but confused.

12/31/2017 1524hrs, Sgt. Brann responded to a residence on Main St. in Kingfield to assist the State Police with a report of a domestic disturbance. Upon arrival it was determined to be kids playing with the phone dialing 911.

12/31/2017 2002hrs, Sgt. Brann investigated a report of an abandoned vehicle on the Anson Valley Rd. in New Vineyard.

1/1/2018 0843hrs, Sheriff Nichols had a southbound motor-vehicle pass him on a corner (Horn's Corner) in Farmington who also forced an oncoming vehicle into the breakdown lane. Sheriff Nichols attempted to stop the vehicle with emergency equipment but the driver of the vehicle did not stop and continued into downtown Farmington passing a second car as it approached the district court then running through a red light at the intersection in the center of town. The car eventually stopped in front of "Racing Mart". At that point Sheriff Nichols arrested the driver (identified as Andrew Arena (19) of Farmington Connecticut) for failing to stop for police and driving to endanger. Farmington Officers Ryan Rosie and Brandon Sholan assisted at the scene. Deputy McCormick also assisted the Sheriff by transporting the driver to jail.
